FLOOR DEBATE

April 8, 2002 LB 1085

got time. (Laugh) It's only 2:30. Maybe I can...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That's in the definition of an occasional sale.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Is that what it is, Senator Kristensen,...I mean, Senator Wickersham?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes. That...I'm having to relate back because that goes back to the beginning of Section 2 and it says an, "Occasional sale shall mean:", and then it's "A sale...subject to..."

SENATOR HARTNETT: In other words, that just kind of clarifying language about...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay. And then that's...that's an additional sale. It...those are additional sales of household goods and personal effects, but it relates back to the original...to the beginning of the section that is defining what is an occasional sale, I believe.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Okay. Thank you, Senator Wickersham.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Were you...were you through, Senator Hartnett?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I'm done. Yeah.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You're through?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I'm done.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Everybody is through. Senator Janssen. Senator Janssen, are you on the floor? Yes.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Senator Cudaback, members of the Legislature. I believe the...probably the biggest item on here is in, let's see...one of them is on page 7, line 10: The use of state...in this state of materials and replacement parts which are acquired outside this state and which are moved into
